Lisa Hooks from the State Council of Developmental Disabilities voiced her concern that Aging Individuals and Minority Individuals are not being provided with adequate Housing.

John Decker from Alta California Regional Center discussed the Future Planning Program that all of the Service Coordinators from the Regional Center will be implementing when they conduct the Individual Program Plan (IPP). He also discussed AB 3291 (Assembly Committee on Human Services) It would add careprovider succession planning to the IPP requirements in the Lanterman Act. Basically, the Future Planning Program will seek to address the Housing Needs for all of Clients over 70 years of age or whenever a caregiver's death causes the need to address future housing needs.

The Meeting was adjourned at 9:55 am. There will be a DD Council Meeting on June 19, 2024. However, a Guest Speaker for this Meeting has not been established just yet.

There is no Video at this time for this DD Council Meeting:
